A quick change of scenery? This versatile bench can be used in more than one way. Take a seat on the bench or turn around to the opposite direction - the backrest now doubles as a tabletop. This design adds comfort to each street, rooftop, garden or balcony.

Hopper bench

To create an attractive and lively urban area, Okayama city in Japan has placed 30 Hopper benches along the main street. By shifting from a 'car-centered' to a 'people-first' area, the city has created a spacious area that is fun to walk along. Now, people from all ages feel comfortable using the public space that has shifted from a parking space into a meeting area.

In 2021, the town of Rockford, Michigan closed part of its main street for a few months to create a public gathering space. After seeing how the main street quickly became a bustling place for families and friends, boosting the local businesses as well, the city has made a long-term investment in togetherness by placing Hopper benches along the walkways to bring people together in the public space.

The Hopper combo combines the best of two worlds: a bench on one side and chairs on the other. The attached bench allows you to slide in from the sides, without having to lift your legs. The open side offers flexibility and welcomes wheelchairs or child seats at any time.

Hopper combo

Chair or bench? It's up to you! Whereas Hopper picnic has two slanted legs with fixed benches, Hopper combo has one slanted leg with a fixed bench and one straight side that fits your favorite chairs.

What's your preferred seat? A shared bench that creates an exceptional atmosphere or a separate chair that offers the flexibility of personal space? At the Hopper combo table everybody is free to choose their favorite side.

Being based in the only hops region in Belgium, we've let the many hop gardens that dominate the landscape inspire our designs. Mimicking the hop fields, the Hopper shade has slanted poles that fold the canopy in an esthetically pleasing way.
