The Mistral market parasol range, with its minimalist aesthetic look, perfectly illustrates the elegance of simplicity. Resilient, functional and maintenance free, it hits the mark with longevity and style. For OEM orders our premium grade screen and digital printing options offer excellent branding opportunities for commercial applications, making the Mistral as comfortable in the marketplace as well as in the home.

The Mistral features anodised aluminum ribs and pole with non-corrosive composite glass-reinforced upper and lower notches. The canopy opens effortlessly with a built in pulley system while the fittings are all made from stainless steel.
